

IF I'M GUILTY

It's so easy to criticize when someone else fails.

It's so easy to see faults in them when we overlook ourselves.

Lord knows I'm not perfect, I don't deserve to throw rocks at anyone.

So if there's a mistake, you see in me, let it be this one.

(chorus)

If I'm guilty, let me be guilty of too much mercy.

If I'm gonna be wrong,

let me be wrong for treating someone else right.

I don't wanna push down,

what I wanna do now, is help a brother back on his feet.

If I'm guilty, let me be guilty of too much mercy.

So many moments I'm busy takin' when I should be giv-in'.

Too many moments I'm busy talkin' when I should be listenin'.

I need to make it more about others.

Time after time I have found this simple truth

what ever you give, it's gonna come back around.
