

ONE SIZE FITS ALL

Well you might be a pauper or you might be a prince
You might have great wisdom or only common sense
You might be rich and famous or a complete unknown
But there's one thing for certain when our Savior calls us home

(chorus)

When He hands out the halos, one size fits all
When you get your crown of glory it won't be big or small
Your sta-ture on earth won't mea-sure your worth
In His eyes, one size fits all

You might walk a hard road or live on easy street
Live from hand and mouth or have diamonds at your feet
And you might have a little or thought you had it all
But the scales balance out when you meet the Savior's call
